Overview

Casual and comfortable in design, but highly technical in performance, the Tolland Jersey is the jersey you won't want to take off. With the use of Stone Cold fabric technology, the Tolland Jersey keeps you cool, dry, and protected from the sun on your ride and small conveniences like a sunglass wipe and storage pockets keep you focused on the trail, not your clothing. With the added benefit of built-in odor control helping ensure you don't lose friends post-ride, you'll want one in every colour.
