Overview

Most companies refer to their links as, well, links. But we're not like other companies. When we designed the 575 link back in the day, we decided it looked like a dogbone. It does look like a dogbone, right? Darn-tootin. Now you can get a brand-spankin' new one with bearings.

- Matte finish
- Replacement dogbone.
- Enduro Max dogbone bearings.
- Frame Model - Evil : SB5
